Entrex launches “Indigenous Carbon Market” with the Independent Nation of Hawai’i

Boca Raton, FL, May 2, 2022: Entrex Carbon Market (www.EntrexCarbonMarket.com) announces an agreement has been reached with the Nation of Hawai’i to launch a marketplace for “compliance-grade carbon offsets” from the world’s indigenous tribal nations.

“We’ve been working with Dennis ‘Bumpy’ Pu’uhonua Kanahele, the Head of State for the Nation of Hawai’i, for a number of years and recognize his leadership across both the Nation and the world’s indigenous tribes” suggested Stephen H. Watkins CEO of the Entrex Carbon Market. “We believe by working together with our partners, processes and procedures we can provide comfort and credibility to the global indigenous tribes while creating Entrex’s ‘compliance grade carbon offsets’ creating annual income for the Tribal Nations” continued Watkins.

“We found the Entrex Carbon Market offers a unique regulatory-compliant solution and the best and most talented global operating partners to offer a trustworthy solution to our indigenous colleagues globally” said Bumpy Kanahele. “The Entrex solution doesn’t disrupt Tribal lands yet can provide funds to create and develop social and economic programs for the benefit of the Tribes, it is a win-win-win which we look forward to building into a substantial solution for the indigenous people around the world” continued Bumpy.

“The indigenous domestic market alone is estimated to create more than $5 billion in annual offsets. We believe this annual revenue stream can offer recurring carbon offset income to support economic growth for the indigenous tribes – while offering the world credible ‘compliance grade carbon offsets’” said Thomas Harblin, Partner of the Entrex Carbon Market.
