Midas and Sterling Initiate Research on Entrex (OTC: NTRX)

BOCA RATON, FL / October 20, 2025 / Entrex (OTC: NTRX) today announced that Midas and Sterling has initiated independent research coverage on Entrex (OTC: NTRX).

Midas and Sterling, in collaboration with Shelton Private Wealth, developed their relationship with Entrex through the University of Tampa's Sykes College of Business and the Lowth Entrepreneurship Center.

"It's rewarding to see our initiatives acknowledged by independent analysts and to collaborate on the company's direction and future opportunities," said Stephen H. Watkins, CEO of Entrex. "The company anticipates closing its first institutional capital round before Thanksgiving, marking the start of its disciplined roll-out strategy for Bitcoin Mining Trailer acquisitions"

"We expect the balance of the year to deliver material growth for both our operations and our investors while we work with investment banks to support our 2026 capital efforts," Watkins continued.
